ANALYST COMMENT: The threat environment in Fairfax County continues to degrade, with substantive reporting in rising crime and specific attention gang activity and cellular operations of these gangs. Information collected to date is at Medium to High Confidence of La Mara Salvatrucha-13 and several other regional gang presences. Rolled into this is the inference Tren De Aragua. While intelligence worked inside government agencies is operational an undisclosed the large optic here is the national scale, but more vital to churches is the threat environment spike posed by media analysis in the lack of judicial action in these criminal attacks and messages it sends. It is here the emphasis is on the direct and collateral damage posed to churches in this environment. While the article depicts what appears to be a singular criminal act, gang activities are unpredictable and undisciplined tactical operations. American media is awash with reports. Locally, Rumor Intelligence reveals suspicious activities of probable gang members in neighborhoods.

 CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY STUDENT ARRESTED FOR ISIS CHRISTMAS MARKET BOMB PLOT

Polish Internal Security Agency detained Mateusz W., a student at Catholic University of Lublin, for planning a "mass attack" at a Christmas market using explosives.

He's charged with preparing a terrorist attack "that could have resulted in the death or serious injury of many people."

The ISIS connection:

Mateusz wanted to join Islamic State and was "taking steps to establish contact with a terrorist organization, including obtaining its support in carrying out the attack." Officers seized data carriers and "items related to Islam" during the investigation.

Catholic university. ISIS sympathizer. Not the first time - radicalization happens everywhere, including religious schools.

The Islamic State recruitment machine doesn't care where you study, just whether you're willing.

What's next:

3-month preliminary detention while prosecutors build the case. Polish authorities gave minimal details - no specifics on which Christmas market, how far along the plot was, or whether Mateusz actually established ISIS contact or just tried.

Timing matters:

This comes one week after Bondi Beach (ISIS-inspired), days after the Russian school attack (online extremist radicalization).

The Christmas market target echoes 2016 Berlin truck attack that killed 12.

Europe's on edge - Poland just stopped one before it started.

One of the Los Angeles communist black bloc militants federally charged for being part of a far-left group that allegedly planned New Year's Eve bombings in southern California is Audrey Illeene Carroll. She uses the alias "Sky Miin."

In June, Carroll interacted with DSA activist Christopher E. Winston @OGBlackRedGuard and suggested that what she was planning against @ICEgov would be on the news. In February, she admitted going to direct actions in black bloc—Antifa's preferred uniform.

Carroll's mother revealed her daughter's "Sky Miin" alias when she put out a call for help in finding her. The mother didn't know the FBI had arrested her daughter at the time.

Four Southern California members of the Turtle Island Liberation Front were arrested last week while traveling to the desert east of Los Angeles to test improvised explosive devices, officials said. ngocomment.com

This is a particularly icky land acknowledgement from Shaughnessy Heights United Church, who explain:

"For millennia upon millennia, indigenous communities honored many diverse expressions of gender and sexuality.

Starting 500 years ago or more, colonizers brought and imposed their own culture and social norms and their moral codes on what were thriving lifegiving societies. We join 2-Spirit peoples in grieving what was lost and stolen."

Clive Johnston, a 76-year-old retired UK pastor, was in court this week to face criminal charges for preaching a Gospel sermon outside a hospital that provides abortions in Northern Ireland. He didn't even mention abortion during his message on John 3:16, and no abortion signs were displayed! Simon Calvert, deputy director of The Christian Institute @christianorguk, which is supporting Clive's legal defense, said, "There is a vital principle at stake. If the Gospel can be banned in this public space, where else can it be banned?" He's right. Clive's next court hearing is scheduled for March. Let's pray for him—and that the freedom to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ will be protected.

This is ANTIFA veteran Kris Goldsmith (who works with the FBI) calling Moms for Liberty a domestic terrorist hate group that has made terroristic threats against schools including taking guns to schools to murder people.

In order to delegitimize a group that has values contrary to their own, the progressive democracy cult has the SPLC Poverty Palace label them as extremists. It's all about creating narratives to destroy conservatism and populism.

Democracy Inc. does not care that their lies have real world consequences as the ends justifies the means.

The right needs to get into the lawfare game and start suing the SPLC (and related groups) and people like Kris into oblivion.
