So why this entire article and just posting to my weekly SIGACT product? Stay with me on my entire motive. Encountering this article, I am compelled by prayer to publish this as a plea to the years of layered rejection to what I have presented to the Church. My testimony in NO WAY detracts from the slaughter of this family, and the avoidable horrors the church has suffered at least since. This affirms my mission and ministry and those of so many other Saints who have devoted themselves to protecting the flock. This Mission field, In Obscura, LLC was formed in March 2025 with no website access. EXHIBIT (1) attached at the end of this report contains my intelligence collection scrape of this attack.

This Mission field, In Obscura, LLC was formed as a direct result of deepest meditation prayer. This with a pledge to Jesus Christ in devotion for His miracle in saving me from cancer in summer 2007. As the first director of security at my church in 2022, I started applying all of my five decades' skills to the threats posed to Christians.

What I found since 2022 has been heartbreaking and angering. The escalating attacks and crimes merging with the refusal to engage them proactively; being rejected and shunned I never expected. I have met heavy resistance. Details upon request. In deep depression, my prayer life took an astonishing turn. Deeper and deeper. Not only did His Voice get clearer, but everything also that followed as In Obscura formed has been a collaboration from Him and the glorious souls who helped make it what God intended all along.

So it is with a spirit of heaviness yet joy at the same time, I bring this heartbreaking discovery this morning to you and ask you in the Name of Jesus Christ to stand up and step forward. That's it, very simple. I forgave the rejection, accusations, mocking, unreturned phone calls, unanswered e-mails and shunning. My question is how can you look at this slaughter and ignore it? My bolded text is for emphasis....

Pastor reflects year after wife daughter murdered at church in shocking attack

A year after his wife and daughter were fatally shot inside his church and he survived being shot multiple times, Jerry Gumm, the 82-year-old pastor of Richmond Road Baptist Church in Lexington, Kentucky, remains adamant that the tragedy will not stop him from praising the Lord.

"I would not let that monster change my life [or] what I do. Now, he has changed my life: what I don't have. What he's done to us — that has changed us, that's for sure. But I'm not letting him stop me from serving the Lord," Gumm, who has been leading his church for nearly 55 years, told Lex18.

On July 13, 2025, 47-year-old Guy House, who also took his own life, fatally shot Gumm's wife, Beverly Gumm, 72, and one of their daughters, Christina Combs, 32, during a shooting rampage at the church. House, who also shot Combs' husband, Randy Combs, during the rampage, was a rapper known as HonKy Kong. Family and friends believe he had a mental breakdown because he was not allowed to see his daughter.

House reportedly went into the church looking for the mother of his child, who was not in the church at the time. He reacted by killing Beverly Gumm, his daughter's grandmother, and Christina Combs, his daughter's aunt.

In an interview with WKYT, House's ex-girlfriend said that he had become suicidal and threatened her life in the days leading up to the shooting. She said she reached out to local police and filed an emergency protective order against House, which was never served. Despite professing his commitment to his faith in God, Pastor Gumm says he's not forgotten the horror of the fateful day of the shooting.

"As I was telling the church yesterday, I was laying in the mud over there, my tongue was split in two. The bullet had cut it from front to back. The police told me I was laying in the mud, my tongue was hanging out of my mouth in two pieces. If it hadn't been for my tongue catching it, that bullet would've gone up and I would've been gone," Gumm told Lex18. The pastor said he later found out that the bullets used by House during the shooting were "homemade shrapnel bullets."

His faith also doesn't stop him from missing his wife and daughter.

"I miss them terribly," he said. "They were both just about round-the-clock workers, they never quit. ... Life was beautiful with them. And they're not here now. That's the worst thing I had to come to." He said after the shooting, some members left the church, but others have been faithful and have been helping him rebuild.

"I've had so many blessings. I couldn't be bitter if I wanted to be," the Kentucky pastor told Lex18. "We're not done. Not about to be done. When they carry me out feet first, I'll be done. But my prayer is they're gonna continue on when I'm gone."

Guy E. House was identified as Richmond Road Baptist Church shooting suspect who killed two women in Lexington, Kentucky.
He was a leftist and a 'Free Palestine' Muslim.
The Democrats are actively cultivating and producing these extremists.
We must be vigilant and prevent it!

Where are all the Israel obsessed “free Palestine” “influencers” today?

Today, a “free Gaza” Muslim in Kentucky who was wearing a Palestinian keffiyeh opened fire on a state trooper.

The shooter then fled to continue his shooting rampage inside a church where he shot four people, leaving two dead.

The names of the victims are Beverly Gum, 72, and Christina Combs, 32. Both are innocent Christian women.

Muslims are opening fire on Christians in churches in America and are trying to murder law enforcement officers while wearing the Palestinian Keffiyeh.

Silence from the Israel derangement syndrome crowd...

Just your daily reminder that the Palestinian movement is a terrorist movement.

...Richmond Road for a shooting with multiple victims. The suspect is deceased.

This shooting is connected to the earlier shooting that occurred on Terminal Drive, where a Kentucky State Trooper was shot. While that shooting occurred on Terminal Drive, it was unrelated to the Blue Grass Airport. The Trooper is in stable condition, receiving medical treatment.

The shooting on Old Richmond Road is also an officer-involved shooting. We are working with the Kentucky State Police Critical Incident Response Team and will continue to provide updates as they become available.

Why did you omit the context of his post? In his post, the now-deceased church shooter and former rapper suggests he beat up and stole the hoodie from someone who called him a “wigger.” He showed it off as a trophy in the image.

One night 3 years ago I was downtown parlayin wit a few local artists and a cipher broke out and the kid laced the circle wit godly bars.....a group of white garbage was drifting by like trash and a fella mentioned aloud "look at that Wigger tryna act black"I decided to change his life and wardrobe for him..... said some things I know this platform here would censor and restrict my account should I repeat them, but the gist was how's about I whip your ass and put your Hoodie on and yell racial slurs at YOU in front of your friends and slap whoever wants it in the crowd and see how YOU like being treated so poorly.... Well I kept the Hoodie as you can see, and it's been a trophy I've kept in my closet since then..... decided I'd wear it today at a car show..... don't get yuns panties in a wad, I'm still the great white Folk, fuck around&find out.
